

Find the information matching your Jigsaw

Sculptures were made from lime stone, wood, terracotta, marble and of course bronze

Crete is an island, so a lot of minoan art work was decorated with sea creatures

The three main styles of columns are Corinthian, Doric and Ionic

Acropolis is the side where all main temples were built overlooking Athens

The bull was a sign for strength

There are three main sculpture styles: The Archaic period, the Classical period and the Hellenistic period

Archaic Statues were simple in a formal position